SUBMITTED BY: Vicky Purtill, Director of Authorisation and Supervision

Purpose of Report:

1. This report updates the Board on the preparations for the Education Roundtable and ABS launch, which takes place on 23 October 2019.

Background:

2. For the last 2 years, the Board has held a roundtable style discussion at its October meeting. The subject of this year's roundtable is the CILEx Regulation revised education standards.

Key issues for consideration:

3. Four speakers have agreed to participate:
 - Dr Steven Vaughan (UCL)
 - Dr Emma Jones (OU)
 - Sarah Chambers (Legal Services Consumer Panel), and
 - Chris Sykes
4. The subject matter for the speakers covers whether law schools are selling law students short, the need for emotional competence in regulatory education standards, the consumer perspective and the future lawyer from a legal technology perspective.
5. The format of the event is an introduction from Sam Younger, 2 x speakers followed by Q&A, a break, the final 2 speakers and a further Q&A with the event then being closed by Sam.
6. We have invited a range of individuals, including representatives from other regulators and the LSB, the MoJ, law teachers and others. Neil Rose, editor of Legal Futures has also agreed to attend and report on the event.

7. The event will be followed by an early evening launch of ABS licensing.

Recommendation:

- The Board is asked to endorse the approach to the roundtable and provide further suggestions for format and invitees.
