INTRODUCTION

1. This handbook guides you on how to meet your continuing professional development (CPD) requirements.
2. It also includes master copies of the documentation which you must complete each year and reference material to help you to plan your CPD activities as this becomes appropriate.
3. The handbook is divided into 2 sections and the sections that apply to you depend on your grade of membership.
4. Associate members should refer to Section A.
5. CILEx Practitioners, Chartered Legal Executives, Associate Prosecutor members, Legal Accounts Fellows, Graduate members and Legal Accounts members should refer to Section B.

SECTION A

For Associate members

SECTION 1 – Hours based CPD scheme

6. Associate members are required to undertake 8 hours CPD and 1 Professionalism outcome each CPD year.

Types of Training

7. The CPD requirements for each membership grade are divided into two broad categories:

(i) Specialist Training

Members are required to choose their area of specialisation by marking the area on their CPD logbook. This will usually be the main area of work in which the member practises but, where a member works in a more general capacity; they may designate a specialist area of their choice. Members are required to undertake a minimum of half of their CPD hours training in their chosen specialist area.

(ii) Non-Specialist Training

The other half of the CPD hours may be taken in any area(s) of a member's choice (which may also be in their areas of specialisation if they wish) which they consider would be of benefit to them in their daily role. This may include non-legal work such as management training, or the development of communication skills or information technology skills.

Recording CPD

Members are required to record their CPD through an on line recording system. Members may log onto 'myCILEx' through the CILEx website (www.cilex.org.uk). The website contains online log books which members must access to record details of CPD training they have undertaken. Members must submit their log book to CILEx electronically once they have completed their CPD for the year. By submitting the log book to CILEx a member will be making a declaration indicating that the CPD listed on the log book has been completed. False declarations will be referred to the CILEx Regulation as a conduct matter.

HOW TO OBTAIN CPD CREDIT THROUGH TRAINING

8. Listed below are recognised CPD activities for this scheme: When selecting activities, members are reminded to consider the requirements relating to CPD hours for specialist and non-specialist training, as well as the criteria relating to the maximum number of CPD hours credit for specific activities.

9. All members are reminded that they must undertake at least half of their CPD in their designated specialist area. However, members who are working, but not employed within legal practice, are not required to nominate a specialist area.

Recognised CPD Activities

10. The list of recognised CPD activities should be used in conjunction with the criteria and explanatory notes detailed below, as well as the required evidence detailed in the following table. Particular attention is drawn to the criteria relating to CILEx Law School updates and the Legal Executive Journal or Internet articles.

- (i) CILEx Law School Updates for current CPD year
- (ii) Relevant Journal or Internet Articles for current CPD year
- (iii) Attendance at courses or seminars in specialist or non-specialist areas
- (iv) Distance Learning Courses (including e-learning) in specialist or non-specialist areas
- (v) In-house training by employer in specialist or non-specialist areas
- (vi) Training by local CILEx or Law Society Branches in specialist or non-specialist areas
- (vii) Academic or professional study in specialist or non-specialist areas
- (viii) Production of a dissertation in specialist or non-specialist areas
- (ix) Research of a legal topic in specialist areas only
- (x) Preparation and delivery of training courses in specialist or non-specialist areas
- (xi) Work shadowing in specialist or non-specialist areas
- (xii) Coaching or mentoring in specialist or non-specialist areas
- (xiii) Participation in development of areas of law through Committee or Working Party activity – specialist areas only
- (xiv) Writing on law or practice – specialist areas only

11. Criteria and Explanatory Notes Relating to CPD Activities

(i) CILEx Law School updates, and (ii) Relevant journal or internet articles:

- a. Only two CILEx Law School updates are available for each member.
- b. One CILEx Law School update equals a maximum of 4 hours CPD, and is likely to be in a member's specialist area, but could be in a non-specialist area.
- c. Members can claim a maximum of 75% of their CPD for reading relevant articles and using CILEx Law School updates.

d. Another CPD activity (other than CILEx Law School updates or reading relevant articles) MUST be undertaken by members to achieve the outstanding 25% CPD.

Use of CILEx Law School CPD updates, course manuals and self-assessment questions and answers

Each year CILEx Law School will forward self-assessment questions and answers, with either a specially written CPD update or CILEx Law School course manual, to members who request them. A maximum of two CPD updates and/or CILEx Law School course manuals and self-assessment questions will be provided for each member. Members are required to study the CPD update or CILEx Law School course manual and answer 30 multiple-choice and/or short-answer questions based on the materials. Members are not required to return their answers to CILEx Law School, but should retain them with their logbook as CILEx may request them for checking purposes. Wherever possible, the CPD updates or CILEx Law School course manuals and self-assessment questions and answers will be self-contained but, where there are major changes to the law in a particular field, it may not be practical to produce a self-contained guide in that field. These materials should become available between June and September. Members should note that the CPD updates, CILEx Law School course manuals and self-assessment questions and answers are not intended for academic study of the law. They are intended for those members already practising in the area of law for which the CPD materials have been requested, and they therefore assume a level of knowledge in that topic equivalent to a CILEx Level 6 Professional Higher Diploma in Law examination pass. Members are advised against undertaking this form of CPD unless they are already fully conversant with the area of law in question.

Completion of CILEx Law School CPD materials in one subject will equate to 4 hours CPD. Members may request two sets of CILEx Law School CPD materials, one of which must be in their nominated area of specialisation.

The CILEx Level 6 Professional Higher Diploma in Law subjects for which CILEx Law School CPD materials are available are as follows:

Civil Litigation
Conveyancing and Land Law (combined*)
Criminal Law and Practice (combined*)
Probate Law and Practice (combined*)

Family Law and Practice (combined*)
Law of Tort
Law of Contract
Landlord and Tenant Law
Equity and Trusts
Employment Law

* These subjects have been combined to create one text containing both substantive law and legal practice.

4 hours CPD is given for the combined subject.

(iii) Attendance at a course presented by a training provider

Attendance at a course provided by a training provider is sufficient training for CPD purposes up to the amount of hours in actual attendance. A member will need to complete his or her logbook with the details of the course and the number of hours of CPD credited, and ask the training provider to provide the course code for marking on the logbook as proof of attendance. All training providers should provide a course code. CILEx is unable to provide guarantees regarding the training delivered by any training provider.

(iv) Distance learning courses offered by a training provider

Distance learning courses (including e-learning) provided by a training provider are acceptable up to the amount of hours specified in the course materials, as long as the course provider has supplied the course code for the logbook in the same manner as for courses requiring attendance.

Any course taken with a training provider accredited by the Law Society or any other professional body may be used as CILEx CPD, provided the requirements of the CILEx scheme are satisfied.

(v) In-house training by employer

A member may engage in training carried out in-house by his or her employer as part of that employer's continuing professional development for staff. The member's log book must be signed off by the Training Manager or any equivalent person within the firm and submitted on request as evidence of training to CILEx. In-house training providers are automatically approved for training their own staff, and are not required to undergo a formal listing process.

(vi) Training provided by local ILEX Branches or local Law Societies

A member may engage in training carried out by a CILEx Branch or by a local Law Society. Members should check with their local Branch for any CPD training offered throughout the year.

(vii) Academic study

Academic study may be used to fulfil the CPD requirements in respect of all CPD hours in either specialist or non-specialist areas.

(viii) Dissertation

Actual time researching and writing up a dissertation in the member's chosen specialist area equates to up to 100% of the CPD requirement, whereas research and writing up a dissertation within a non-specialist area equates to up to 50% of the CPD requirement. Where research and writing of a dissertation spans more than one year, this activity can be claimed for CPD purposes each year.

(ix) Research

Actual time spent on research undertaken in the member's chosen specialist area equates to up to 100% of the CPD requirement, whereas research undertaken in a non-specialist area equates to a maximum of 50% of the CPD requirement.

(x) Preparation and delivery of training courses

Members, who are CILEx tutors delivering the Level 3 Professional Diploma in Law or Level 6 Professional Higher Diploma in Law, cannot claim the delivery of these courses as a CPD activity. However, preparation, including research to ensure that up-to-date material is delivered, is a recognised CPD activity.

(xi) Work shadowing

Actual time spent work shadowing equates to 100% of the CPD requirement if it is undertaken within the chosen specialist area, and equates to a maximum of 50% of the CPD requirement if it is undertaken within a non-specialist area.

(xii) Coaching and mentoring

Members, who are CILEx Level 3 and Level 6 tutors, cannot claim as a CPD activity the coaching or mentoring of CILEx students towards their professional qualifications. This applies to coaching and mentoring in both specialist and non-specialist areas.

(xiii) Participation in development of specialist areas of law

This only counts as a recognised CPD activity when it is undertaken within the member's chosen specialist area of law. Actual time spent at meetings etc equates to up to 100% of the CPD requirement.

(xiv) Writing on law and/or practice

This only counts as a recognised CPD activity when it is undertaken within the member's chosen specialist area of law. Actual time spent on writing equates to up to 100% of the CPD requirement.

Submission of log books

12. CILEx Regulation requires members to submit their completed logbook to CILEx for monitoring and verification. False declarations relating to the CPD logbook will be referred to CILEx Regulation as a conduct matter.
13. Log books should be submitted using the online recording system by 30 September each year.

Affiliates upgrading to Associate member

14. If an affiliate member of CILEx is upgraded to Associate membership during the CPD year (1 October to 30 September), he or she will not be required to complete any CPD until the start of the CPD year following their upgrade to Associate membership.

Associate members upgrading to Graduate member

15. If an Associate member of CILEx is upgraded to Graduate member during the CPD year (1 October to 30 September) he or she will only be required to complete Associate CPD requirements during that year. He or she will need to complete the Graduate requirement of CPD from the start of the CPD year following their upgrade to Graduate membership.

Members working outside legal practice

16. Members who are currently working outside legal practice will be required to complete CPD in the normal way in accordance with the Regulations, although they will not be required to designate a specialist area for CPD study.

Self-employed members

17. CILEx members who are self-employed, whether providing legal services or otherwise, will be required to complete CPD in accordance with the Regulations.

Retired members

18. Retired members are exempt from the requirement to complete any CPD training.

Part-Time Employment

19. CILEx members in any form of part-time employment are required to undertake CPD in the same way as members in full-time employment. This is non-discretionary.

Overseas members

20. Members working outside the United Kingdom are subject to CPD. Overseas members may undertake training relevant to their own professional development using any of the methods available to United Kingdom members. However, as CILEx is unable to list overseas training providers, the following rules apply:

(i) Overseas members may attend local training courses in their nominated specialist area, if the course provider is approved by the local Bar or Law Society, or other such recognised legal professional body. The members are required to enter in the logbook the name and address of the training provider, and full details of the course undertaken.

(ii) Overseas members may undertake up to 50% of their CPD training in non-specialist areas, which is relevant to their individual professional development.

Members are required to enter in the logbook the name and address of the training provider, and full details of the course undertaken. Random checks will be made to verify the accuracy of the details provided.

As a condition of these concessions, the member's logbook must be signed by their employer (except in the case where a member is self-employed), in addition to the declaration signed by the member.

Members required to undertake CPD with other professional bodies

21. CILEx recognises that many of its members are members of other legal professional bodies, such as the Law Society and Council for Licensed Conveyancers. These bodies have their own continuing professional development scheme. It is possible, therefore, for members to 'double count' CPD completed through that body towards completion of the CILEx CPD obligations, provided all the conditions of the CILEx scheme are met. CILEx members who have already completed CPD in their capacity as Solicitors or Licensed Conveyancers may produce this CPD evidence to satisfy their CILEx CPD. The CILEx CPD year need not coincide with those of other professional bodies.

Employers not funding CPD or not allowing time off to complete CPD.

22. The responsibility to undertake CPD lies with the individual member. A member's employer is not obliged to provide them with time off from work to complete the CPD, nor is the employer obliged to fund the cost incurred by the member for undertaking CPD. Members who find themselves in such circumstances may wish to consider low cost CPD activities.

Dispensation from CPD for Reason of Absence

23. Members who are absent from employment for 6 months or more in a CPD year, whether in legal practice or otherwise, due to:

- illness
- unemployment
- maternity leave

are not required to undertake CPD during the CPD year in which the situation applies. The member must write to CILEx seeking dispensation from the CPD requirements setting out the reason for the absence and the dates. Where a member seeks dispensation on the grounds of ill health, he or she must attach supporting medical evidence to their letter.

Members are expected to resume CPD on their return to work, and will be required to complete the full CPD requirement if they are absent from work for less than 6 months in a CPD year.

Further details on dispensation are available from the CILEx Membership team on 01234 845 777.

Failure to Comply with CPD Requirements

24. Failure to comply with the CPD requirements is a breach of CILEx Regulation Regulations. It constitutes misconduct, and will be referred to CILEx Regulation for investigation in relation to the conduct of the member. It may result in a referral to the Professional Conduct Panel which may reprimand or warn members. The Panel may also refer cases to the Disciplinary Tribunal which has additional powers, including the power to exclude members from membership of CILEx.

Example of the online logbook on myCILEx

25. You will first need to login to myCILEx - go to the CILEx website and look for the login in the top right-hand corner of the homepage. Once logged in you will see a 'CPD Online' tab, under the 'For Members' section. This takes you to the CPD area of myCILEx. Clicking the 'Record CPD Activity' tab on the left takes you to your logbook. You must then scroll down and click 'Add New '201-' hours based CPD record', you are now ready to enter your first CPD activity - you should see the box below.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <https://www.cilex.org.uk/mycilex/members/> and a tab titled 'Record CPD Activity'. The main heading is 'Add CPD Record'. The form contains the following fields and callouts:

- CPD Year: A dropdown menu set to '2013'. Callout: 'The CPD must be undertaken in the current year to be submitted as part of your CPD log.'
- Activity Date: Three dropdown menus for day, month, and year, set to '9', 'January', and '2013' respectively.
- CPD Type: A dropdown menu set to 'ILEX Tutorial College CPD Updates'. Callout: 'Click here for the drop-down-menu to select the area of your CPD.'
- Non-CPD Activity: An unchecked checkbox.
- Specialism Related: A checked checkbox.
- Description: A text area containing 'Completed ITC Update on Civil Litigation'. Callout: 'Write a short description of your CPD activity here – you should also note which area the activity relates to – simply writing “CILEX LAW SCHOOL Update” is not enough detail.'
- CPD Hours / Duration: A dropdown menu set to '4.00'. Callout: 'Select the number of CPD hours that have been achieved from this specific'.
- Comments: A large text area.
- Organiser: A text input field.
- Course Code: A text input field.

At the bottom of the form are three buttons: 'Submit', 'Reset', and 'Back To Summary'.

26. You will need to decide whether or not the activity is 'Specialism Related'. There is a box that you must tick if this is the case. If it is not in your specialism leave this box empty, you won't need to tick the 'Non-CPD Activity' box – by not ticking either it will be counted as your non specialist CPD, making up, at most, half of your CPD in total.

27. Other fields, such as 'Organiser', 'Course Code' and 'Comments', are not compulsory for completion. However, they prove useful for validity especially when you only have a very short description to write in the description box.

28. Please remember to 'Submit' this record once you have completed the required fields. This should then be visible on your logbook. You will be able to edit any logbook entries up until the point at which you click 'Submit 201- CPD Log' – located at the bottom right of your logbook. This should only be done once you have ensured you have completed the minimum number of CPD hours required from your membership grade.

Professionalism Requirement

What is 'Professionalism'?

29. For the purposes of fulfilling the CPD requirement in professionalism, learning something new, or refreshing or developing your knowledge or skills, in one of the following areas, will count as your CPD:

- Refreshing your knowledge and understanding of professional ethics, including the Code of Conduct
- Improving knowledge of the primary business in which your clients work (business awareness)
- Developing an understanding of the issues which may affect your clients (social awareness)
- Developing your client communication skills
- Improving your skills in dealing with challenging clients
- Refreshing your knowledge and understanding of equality and diversity issues
- Improving your time management skills

30. In order to meet the new requirements, you will need to take some time to reflect on which of these elements you would like to work on this year. You may have equality and diversity training scheduled at work or you may think that improving time management skills would have a positive effect on your work etc.

31. Once you have identified the area that you are going to work on (you need only choose one), you should then plan a CPD activity which you think will meet your identified learning need. This could be an external course, webinar, independent study, in-house training etc. This should be recorded on the document on page 45 of this document.

32. You should set out in your plan, the activity you intend to undertake and the date by which you will complete the activity (this should be no later than 30 September). You should also identify the 'learning outcome'.

Because this part of your CPD is outcomes-based, when you are planning your CPD for this element of your CPD, you will think about what you want to learn from your CPD activity. This will be your 'learning outcome' from the activity.

Each of the suggested activities listed above is written as a learning outcome. It explains what you intend to learn from undertaking CPD and does so using a verb.

A learning outcome describes what you will have achieved (or learnt) once you have completed your activity.

33. Once you have completed the activity, you should evaluate it. This means thinking about whether and how far the activity you undertook met your learning outcome. That is, did you refresh your knowledge of the area identified? Have you improved your client communication skills? etc. You may think that you could learn more as a result of completing the activity and this could be added to next year's plan.

34. To log your Professionalism outcome on myCILEx you will first need to login to myCILEx - go to the CILEx website and look for the login in the top right-hand corner of the homepage. Once logged in you will see a 'CPD Online' tab, under the 'For Members' section. This takes you to the CPD area of myCILEx. Clicking the 'Record CPD Activity' tab on the left takes you to your logbook. You must then scroll down and click 'Add New '201-' outcomes based CPD record', you are now ready to enter your first CPD outcome.

SECTION B

For CILEx Practitioners, Fellows,
Associate Prosecutors, Graduates,
Legal Accounts Executives and
Legal Accounts members

SECTION B – Outcomes based CPD Scheme

35. CILEx Practitioners, Chartered Legal Executives, Associate Prosecutor members, Legal Accounts Executives, Graduate members and Legal Accounts members are required to complete and log 9 CPD outcomes each year.

What is CPD?

36. We define CPD as:

‘To maintain, improve and extend the skills and qualities necessary for the proper performance of professional and legal duties and compliance required by CILEx Regulation, to ensure confidence in the professionalism and competence of CILEx members.’

What activities will count as CPD?

37. We do not specify an exhaustive list of activities which will count as CPD, we simply expect you to undertake a range of CPD throughout the year. This might include, for example:

- Attending relevant courses, conferences and seminars
- Completing distance learning courses
- Doing in house training through your employer
- Doing CILEx Law School Updates
- Reading Journal articles relevant to your work
- Doing academic or professional study
- Producing a dissertation on a matter relevant to your practice
- Researching a legal topic and putting in place new or revised procedures as a result of the research outcomes
- Preparing and delivering training courses*
- Work shadowing
- Giving coaching or mentoring*
- Receiving coaching or mentoring
- Participating in the development of law through Committee or Working Group activity
- Writing on law or practice*

*These activities may be appropriate for senior members of the profession

38. In addition, the scheme recognises as CPD:

- Reflection on learning you have gained from being involved in a ‘critical incident’ and
- Reflection on learning gained through the experience of new tasks.

- You will be able to count as CPD the learning which came from something that went wrong or taking part in a new activity.
 - CPD requirements can be fulfilled in one of 2 ways:
 - Planned or
 - Unplanned
39. One of your outcomes must cover professionalism. This requirement has been introduced to ensure you are fully aware of the importance of professionalism in your day to day work. You will need to evidence that you have undertaken some CPD in professionalism every year.
40. If you are a Chartered Legal Executive Advocate you will be required to undertake 2 outcomes focused on advocacy skills.

CPD Record Submission

41. By 30 September each year, you must submit your CPD record, which identifies at least 9 CPD outcomes of which at least 5 should come from planned activities. You should submit this information through 'MyCILEx'.
42. There is no need to submit any of the other documentation, but this should be retained for 2 years after the CPD year end as they may be called in for sampling by us.
43. To help you reflect and plan CPD relevant to you, we have developed the Reflection and Planning tool and a reference document called the 'Competency Framework'.
44. The information below explains how you can use these tools.

The Reflection and Planning Document and the Competency Framework

45. The first part of the CPD cycle is reflection on your practice to identify your training and development needs. This is followed by a plan as to how you will meet these needs
46. You should start your reflection as soon as possible after 1 October.
47. The Reflection and Planning document is designed to help you to identify the areas in which you want to refresh and develop your competence and professionalism as a member of CILEx. You should plan and record at least 3 intended learning outcomes at this stage. By the end of the CPD year, you should have completed at least 5 activities.
48. The document contains a number of questions to help you to reflect on your current practice and to identify some areas for development.

Although you can use your own process to reflect and plan your CPD, the document provided has been designed to help with the process through the questions it asks. It will be your evidence of your reflection and planning if your CPD records are called for sampling.

49. If you have an annual appraisal at work, you may have already agreed some areas for development with your employer. These should be included on your planning document. Alternatively, your appraisal form may suffice as your planning document.
50. Your plan should mirror the areas identified for reflection.
51. We recognise that plans made at the beginning of the year may change during the course of the year perhaps because you have changed roles. This is fine. You should simply refocus your plan to reflect the changes with a note as to why you have changed the original plan.
52. One question in the document asks you to refer to the Competency Framework for CILEx members. The framework has been developed to provide a statement of the minimum knowledge, experience and skills we expect new Fellows to have. The framework has been divided into 8 competencies and sets out the learning outcomes that new applicants for Fellowship will be required to achieve. They have been developed to provide an objective assessment of applications for Fellowship. The document is for your reference only. We do not expect you to take part in CPD activities in every area outlined within the document. It is simply to help you to identify gaps in your knowledge and skills against expected standards that you may then address through CPD.
53. Once you have identified your areas for development and written these on the form as learning outcomes to be completed over the CPD year, you can include them on your development plan.
54. The first entry is for 'Professionalism'. This is a compulsory element of the CPD scheme. More guidance on this element can be found on pages 22-24.
55. We do not stipulate what activities can count as CPD, provided you undertake a range of CPD throughout the year. This refers both to the type of CPD you undertake and also to its content.
56. You should plan at least 3 intended outcomes of development activity at the beginning of the year, professionalism is a planned activity. At the end of the year you are required to record at least 9 outcomes which you have achieved through CPD. At least 5 of these entries should come from planned CPD. You may undertake and log more than 9 outcomes, but you may not carry these forward to the next CPD year. We recognise that the planned activities may change throughout the course of the CPD year, for instance, where the focus of your role has changed towards a different area of practice. If this happens, you can review your plan and change the outcomes which you intend to achieve.

The Evaluation of Activity document

57. You should complete this document (or make an equivalent record of evaluation of the CPD activity and how far it met your outcome) for each planned activity that you participate in. It asks you to consider a series of questions and then provide a paragraph which evaluates the usefulness to you of the CPD undertaken. It assists with your continued reflection throughout the CPD process.
58. You may find that you have not met your objective from this activity, so you may want to plan further CPD, adding it to your plan as a new outcome.
59. You should keep supporting documentation which evidences your completion and evaluation of the CPD activity. We will need to see this evidence if your record is chosen for sampling. Supporting evidence includes a record of participation at a CPD event or reference to reading material used for research etc. Your evidence should be kept for 2 years following the end of the CPD year in which the CPD was undertaken.

Recording and Evaluating Unplanned CPD

60. We recognise that there are situations where you will identify a learning need unexpectedly. This may come from a matter you are dealing with for example, where you come across new law or as a result of a 'critical incident' where something has gone wrong. It will not include last minute courses which become available to you (this will count as planned CPD).
61. This unexpected activity still counts towards your CPD for the year. Where this happens you should complete an 'Evaluating Unplanned Activity Document'.
62. The Evaluating Unplanned Activity document asks you to log the activity and reflect on what you have learnt from the experience. In addition it asks how this learning will change your future practice. Finally it asks you to think about whether others may also learn from your activity and, if they would benefit from your experience, how you could share that with others.

How much CPD?

63. You should identify a number of learning outcomes and record these as 'outcomes' on your CPD record. You must list at least 9 outcomes on your CPD record. These can come from either planned activities or unplanned activities, provided at least 5 come from planned activities and 1 outcome is on the subject of professionalism.

Recording CPD activity each year

64. The documents set out above, once completed, should help you to progress through all of the phases of the CPD activity. Please keep them as evidence of your professional development. Documents should be kept for at least 2 years after the end of the CPD year in which the activities were undertaken in case your records are called in for sampling.
65. By 30 September you should summarise your learning outcomes in the CPD Record and submit this through 'MyCILEx'.
66. Your CPD Record is your declaration that you have completed the required amount of CPD. It follows a format similar to the previous annual CPD return which you completed on MyCILEx.
67. For each of the entries you should include the following information:

Learning Outcome: for planned activity. This information will be included on your plan. Where the activity was unplanned you should give an outline of the activity you undertook as included in the Evaluating Unplanned Activities Document.

Learning outcome achieved? You should give a yes/no answer here. The information to answer this question can be found on your Evaluation of Activity Document.

Relevance: You should provide a short statement indicating why the activity is relevant both to your area of practice and to your own work. You should also say how you can or will be able to use what you have learnt.

Monitoring compliance with the scheme

68. CILEx Regulation, as with other regulatory bodies, is responsible for ensuring that the register of members includes only those who are currently competent. CPD is one of a number of methods by which the regulator can ensure this on-going competence.
69. As with the previous CPD scheme, the new scheme is compulsory for all members of CILEx in the Associate, Graduate, Associate Prosecutor, Legal Accounts Executive, Legal Accounts Member and Fellowship grades. However, in a change from the previous requirements, if you are unable to undertake CPD because you are away from work for more than 6 months of the CPD year, you should undertake a 'Returners to Work' scheme within 2 months of the date of your return, or provide other evidence of having kept up to date with changes to the law and legal practice. This could include participating in 'Keep in Touch' days if offered by your employer.

70. If you believe you will be unable to meet the CPD requirements by 30 September, you may apply for an extension of time. The request must be made no later than 31 August and must include an explanation of the circumstances which have prevented you from meeting the CPD requirements. You should also include an action plan which demonstrates how you will comply with the requirements by 31 December.
71. A compulsory scheme assists the regulator (CILEx Regulation) in ensuring minimum standards of competence are maintained by you as a member. There will be sanctions where you do not comply with the scheme. Failure to comply with the scheme will result in suspension of your Practising Certificate and may result in disciplinary action being taken against you.
72. Each year a sample of records will be undertaken to ensure compliance with the scheme and a further sample of members will be interviewed about their CPD. Selection for interview will either be random, because there is a query or concern with the log which can be resolved by interview.
73. In addition to the random sample, a further sample, chosen on the basis of risk of non-compliance, will be reviewed by CILEx Regulation. This could be because the member has a history of non-compliance with CPD requirements or where CPD if it had been undertaken could have prevented the disciplinary action from being taken against a member.

Sampling

74. CILEx Regulation will check that every member has completed and returned a CPD record.
75. In addition, CILEx Regulation will conduct a random sample of 2.5% for each grade of membership.
76. If you are selected for sampling you will be asked to provide additional records, i.e. the Reflection and Planning Document, all Planned Activity Documents, all Unplanned Activity Documents and the accompanying Evaluation Documents (or equivalent records).
77. CILEx Regulation recommends that you keep a CPD portfolio in which this documentation and any other supporting evidence can be kept in case your record is called for sampling. You should keep these documents for a minimum of 2 years, but it may be prudent to keep your record for 5 years.
78. Of this sample, 10% of members will be contacted by telephone to have a further discussion about CPD activity with a member of CILEx

Regulation's staff. Calls may either be random or where CILEx Regulation has concerns about the CPD entries.

79. Where sampling identifies an issue with your record, your CPD activities will be monitored in subsequent years. An audit may also be carried out on individuals who have been subject to disciplinary proceedings.

Members working outside legal practice

80. If you are currently working outside legal practice you will be required to complete CPD in the normal way.

Self-employed members

81. If you are self-employed, whether providing legal services or otherwise, you will be required to complete CPD in the normal way.

Retired members

82. If you are retired, you are exempt from the requirement to complete any CPD.

Legal Accounts Executives

83. If you are a Legal Accounts Executive, whether a Chartered Legal Executive or not, you are required to undertake CPD in the same way as a Fellow.

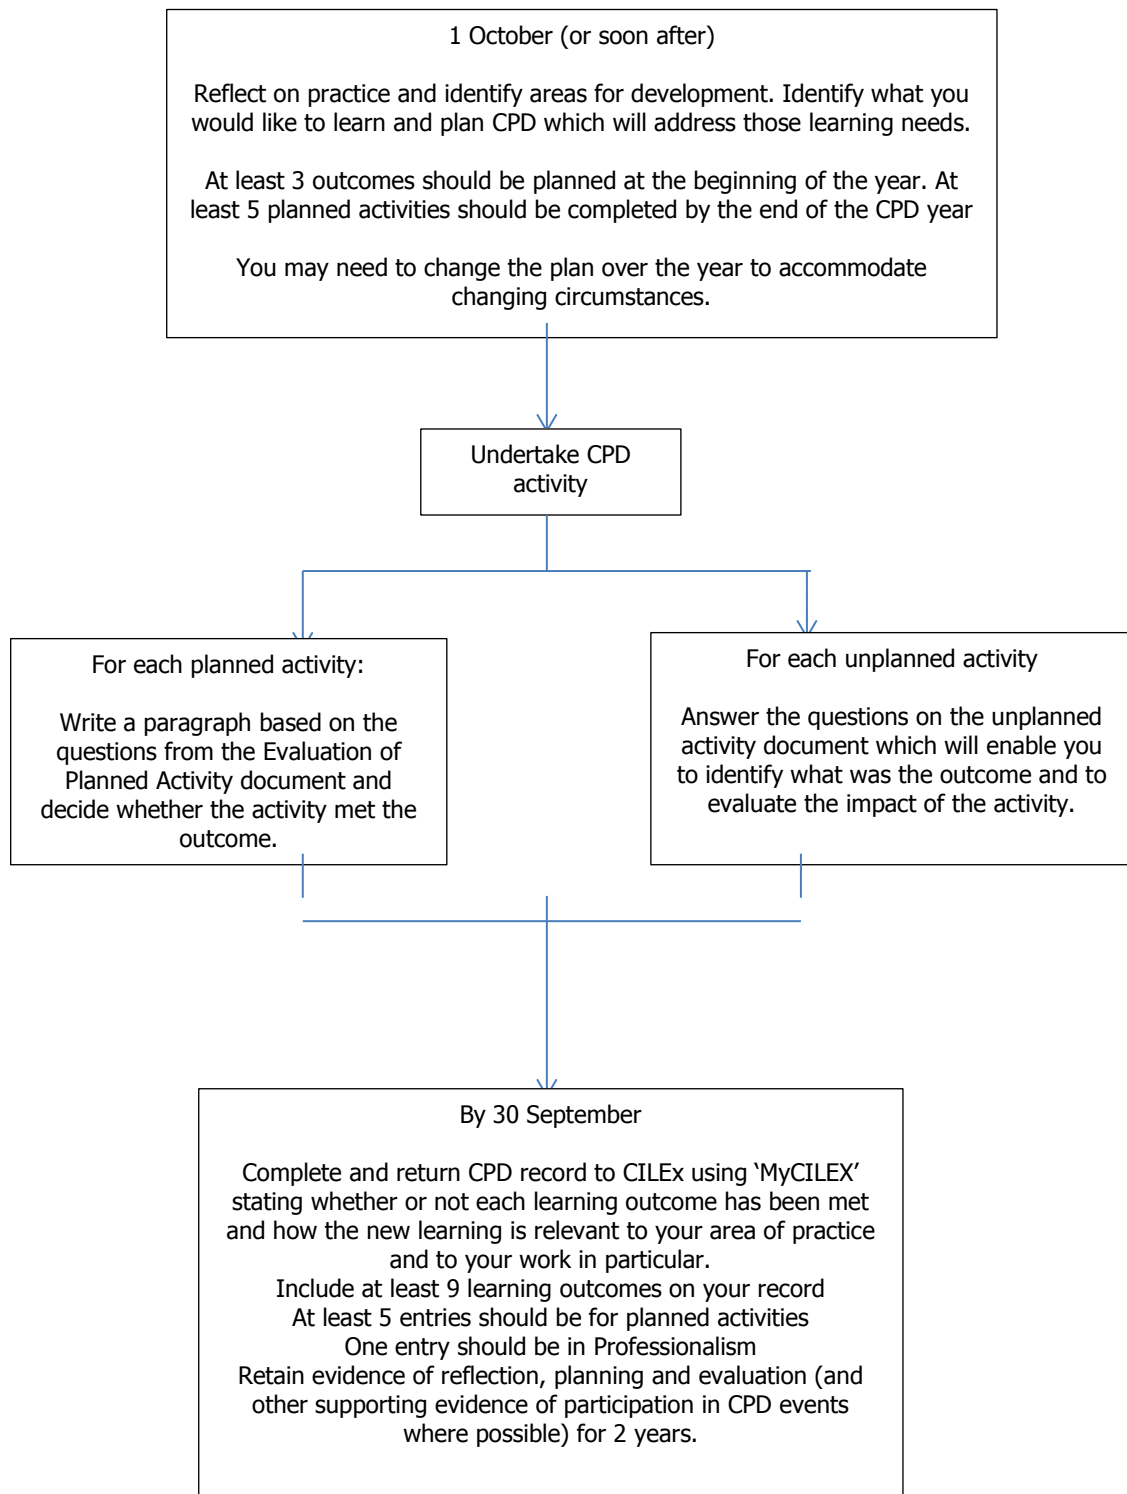

Legal Accounts Members

84. If you are a Legal Accounts Member, you are required to undertake CPD in the same way as a Graduate.

Members required to undertake CPD with other professional bodies

85. CILEx recognises that you may be members of other legal professional bodies, such as the Law Society or the Council for Licensed Conveyancers. These bodies have their own continuing professional development schemes. It is possible for you to 'double count' CPD completed through that body towards completion of the CILEx CPD obligations, provided all the conditions of the CILEx scheme are met. The CILEx CPD year need not coincide with those of other professional bodies. However, members must fulfil the CILEx requirements within each CILEx CPD year.

Diagram of process

Reflection and Planning

This document has been provided to help you to reflect on your work and to identify areas for you to develop through the course of the CPD year.

The first part of the process is to identify your CPD goals for this year.

To help with this process, you should answer the following questions:

1. What is your primary area of practice? _____
2. Do you have a secondary area of practice? _____
3. Is there an area of practice that you would like to develop? _____

Having identified the areas of practice that you are interested in, for each identified area consider the following elements and think about how they may help you to develop in your practice areas:

Legal Knowledge

- Recent legislative developments and their impact on your practice
- Recent developments in case law and their impact on your practice
- Recent industry developments and how they affect your practice
- Changes in or new procedural rules and administrative regulations which govern the area you have identified
- Overview of practice competencies and issues relevant to the area you have identified
- Advanced issues and practice techniques in the area you have identified

Do you need to develop any of these legal practice skills?

- Advocacy (oral and/or written)
- ADR
- Client communication
- Drafting documents
- Legal research
- Negotiation
- Practice Management and Accounts

- Time management
- Business development
- IT skills
- Factual investigation
- Interviewing skills

What type of CPD?

You should now think about the type(s) of CPD you would like to participate in (identified through use of the above lists) and how effectively they will meet your training needs. There is no prescribed list of CPD activities at CILEx, but this may provide you with some ideas as to how you could meet your training and development needs which you have identified above.

- Doing CILEx Law School Updates
- Reading and considering relevant Journal articles
- Attending courses, conferences and seminars
- Distance learning courses
- In house training supplied by employer
- Academic or professional study
- Production of a dissertation
- Research of a legal topic
- Preparation and delivery of training courses
- Work shadowing
- Coaching or mentoring
- Participation in the development of law through Committee or Working Group activity
- Writing on law or practice

Other skills

In addition to undertaking CPD to maintain and develop your knowledge and skills in law and legal practice, there are other skills which are important to your practice.

You may want to consider the following methods which may help you to identify CPD for this year.

Ask clients/colleagues for informal feedback on your practice and performance and identify development areas from their responses

Consider your strengths and weaknesses (review your appraisal if you have one) and identify ways in which you can improve your overall performance as a lawyer

Think about your communication skills with clients and other professionals and identify how you could improve in getting your messages across.

Could improving IT skills help you to provide a more effective and efficient service to clients?

How well do you manage stress? Could effective workload management, techniques or training etc. improve this?

Would learning more about your client's business help you to provide a more effective service?

Review the Competence Framework: are there any areas which you would like to develop?

Next Steps

Having identified some areas for development and methods for achieving them, you should now set some goals for this CPD year, including a timescale for completion by completing the plan below.

Area to develop/goal – from the above reflection	Planned activity (type of activity to meet the intended outcome)	Date complete to	Learning outcome (what you intend to learn from the activity)
Professionalism

Evaluation of Activity

Evaluating planned activity

For each planned activity that you undertake as part of your annual CPD, you should consider the following questions and use these to write a short statement which evaluates the relevance of the activity to your area of practice:

1. What was the activity?
2. What was the learning outcome?(i.e. what did you learn from the activity)
3. How is this activity relevant to your practice?
4. How far did the activity meet your intended development needs?
5. If you have already used this learning in practice, how have you done this?
6. If you have not yet applied the learning in practice, how do you expect to?
7. If the activity did not meet your identified learning outcome, can you plan further CPD to meet this need? If yes, you can add this to your CPD plan.

Evaluating unplanned activities

In addition to your planned activities, you may also undertake activities in the course of your work which are not planned but nonetheless will have a positive impact on your work. These activities may arise from something that has gone wrong (e.g. a critical incident which arose in a matter you were handling), as a result of peer review, conversations with colleagues or from feedback received from clients/service users.

When including unplanned learning as part of your annual CPD obligations you should record the following information:

8. What happened?

9. What did I do and what did I learn?

10. Can I share this? How?

11. If you have already used this learning in practice, how have you done this?

12. If you have not yet applied the learning in practice, how do you envisage the learning will be helpful to your practice?

Minimum no. of learning outcomes required:

All Grades = Professionalism (1 entry) + 8 other entries

At least 5 activities should be planned. Any other activities can be either planned or unplanned. The number of outcomes is a minimum and is intended as a guide to the amount of CPD with which you should be engaged through the CPD year, to provide evidence of professionalism and on-going competence.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Can I use my appraisal from work to list my planned activities, as areas for development are highlighted within it?

Yes, absolutely. The areas for development identified in your appraisal are very relevant to the CPD scheme. You will have identified these areas in conjunction with your employer to enable you to develop your skills, both in the context of personal development and development beneficial to your employer. These will be planned activities, based on reflection of your current and future practice. It is not 'cheating' to use these forms as you have already reflected on your current work in order to identify CPD activities.

The forms have been developed to assist with the process of reflection, planning and evaluation – they are not intended to be prescriptive. If the forms you use in the workplace demonstrate that you are reflecting on practice to identify areas for development, there is no need to repeat this on the CILEx Regulation forms, you can simply submit as evidence, the forms you have used at work. You can use any other form of documentation, provided if your record is called for sample you can produce evidence of having gone through this process. Similarly, if you already evaluate the effectiveness of the development activities you undertake for your employer after completion of CPD activities, you can submit these evaluations. There is no need to duplicate the information onto the CILEx Regulation designed forms.

I have to plan my CPD in October, what if my circumstances change and I need to do different CPD before the end of the CPD year?

This is no problem. You can undertake different CPD from that planned in October, where this has been undertaken as a result of a change in your circumstances. The Reflection and Planning document is not normally lodged with CILEx Regulation in the CPD cycle, so you will be able to make amendments to the plan throughout the CPD year. However, this record should be retained for 2 years following the end of the CPD year as some records will be sampled each year.

What are unplanned activities?

Unplanned activities are a record of learning which you have encountered unexpectedly as part of your work. This could be a new area of law or practice for example, or it may arise as a result of something which has gone wrong, such as an IT failure or issues with file management.

Taking part in a course or similar activity available at short notice is not unplanned activity. It is planned activity and can be added to your CPD plan.

An unplanned activity is anything which requires you to learn something new (or refresh your knowledge) for a matter that you are working on at the time. A planned activity will be any activity where you are learning information proactively – it may be used soon after you undertake the activity, but equally it may be information that you may not need until sometime later.

Why has the CPD year changed?

CILEx Regulation has changed the CPD year to ensure that we can work with members who may not have recorded their CPD on time as soon as possible and thereby minimise the risk that there will be CILEx members practising without a valid practising certificate.

How can sharing my learning experience with others count as CPD?

In sharing your learning experience with others, you may find out more information; either through researching the information before you share the information, or from feedback you receive through sharing the information with others.

What if I am on maternity leave or sick?

The exemption once available for members who were away from work for more than 6 months in a CPD year has been removed. If you are on maternity leave or are away from work for any other reason for more than 6 months, you will be able to either:

- Undertake the required CPD activities
- Undertake a 'returners to work' course

What if I can't complete my CPD within the CPD year?

Usually, CILEx Regulation would expect that you would complete your CPD within the CPD year. However, there may be circumstances where this is not possible. In such cases you should contact the CILEx Regulation offices to discuss your situation.

Do I have to use the Competency Framework to plan my CPD?

No. The Competency Framework is a document for your reference only. It has been developed to define what CILEx Regulation means by a newly qualified Fellow. However, it may be helpful to you when considering whether you may want to develop or enhance any of the skills listed in the framework.

What is an 'outcome' or 'learning outcome' and how do I write one?

When you plan CPD activity, you do so to gain some benefit from taking part in that activity. The outcome or learning outcome from a CPD activity will be what you expect to gain from or get out of taking part in the activity.

When writing an outcome or learning outcome, you will say what you expect to be able to do or will have learnt after you have completed the activity.

Ask yourself why you have chosen this particular activity? Is it to develop new knowledge? Do you want to understand a new or unfamiliar area of practice? Will the CPD help you to better plan your workload in future? etc.

What is the difference between a CPD activity and an outcome?

The outcome or learning outcome is the benefit you have got out of participation in the CPD.

The activity is the type of CPD which you have undertaken in order to achieve the learning outcome.

For example, you may want to know what the recent legislative developments mean in relation to bail hearings. 'Develop knowledge and understanding of the legislative changes which affect bail hearings' will be the learning outcome.

You may attend a course which covers the matter or access a webinar – these would be the CPD activities.

Each year, you should achieve a minimum of 9 learning outcomes from your CPD. You may undertake and record more than 9 outcomes, but you may not carry these forward to the next CPD year. You may get more than one outcome from an activity – equally you may have to do a number of activities in order to address the learning outcome. In the above example you may need to attend the course and read a number of articles on the issue before you consider you have met the outcome.

Why do I need to keep documentation if I only have to submit the CPD record?

We will be sampling CPD records to ensure compliance with the scheme. We will look for evidence that you have reflected, planned and evaluated your CPD activities.

You may demonstrate this through completion of the provided documentation or through the provision of any other documentation which demonstrates that you have completed the reflection, planning and evaluation elements of the new scheme. Where possible you should also keep any documentation which demonstrates that you have completed the activity.

These documents should be kept for 2 years after the end of the CPD year, in case you are chosen for sampling.

What will count as Professionalism CPD?

This is CPD designed to enhance your knowledge and skills in one of a range of areas which would be considered to be associated with being a professional. This may include for example; equality and diversity training, client communication skills, ethics etc.
