

Summary of the Courts you can appear in with a practice right

Qualification held	Advocacy Course completed	Court
Chartered Legal Executive Advocate		Have same rights to appear as for the relevant Practice Right provided they are an employee of a firm regulated to provide the relevant area of litigation and advocacy.
Civil Litigation Practice Rights	Judges Room (2-day course)	Rights of audience in Judge’s room hearings in the County Court and High Court in all civil proceedings excluding family proceedings
	(6-day course)	Rights of audience in Judge’s room hearings in the County Court and High Court in all civil proceedings excluding family proceedings. Appear in open Court in the County Court in all actions, except family proceedings. Appear before Magistrates, District Judges (Magistrates’ Court) or Justices’ Legal Advisers in the Magistrates’ Courts in relation to all civil and enforcement matters. Includes Court of Protection. Appear before any tribunal having jurisdiction in England and Wales, which is listed in Schedule 6 of the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 (as amended or substituted from time to time) where the

		tribunal rules provide for a non-discretionary right of audience being available to barristers, solicitors and CILEx advocates. Appear before Coroners' Courts in respect of all matters determined by those Courts and to exercise rights of audience similar to those exercised by solicitors and barristers.
Criminal Litigation Practice Rights	6-day course	Appear before Justices Clerks, Justices or a District Judge (Magistrates' Court) in all adult Magistrates' Courts in relation to all matters within that Court's criminal jurisdiction. Appear before Justices Clerks, Justices or a District Judge (Magistrates' Court) in all Youth Courts in relation to all matters within that Court's criminal jurisdiction. Appear in the Crown Court or High Court before a judge in chambers to conduct bail applications. Appear in the Crown Court on appeal from the Magistrates' Court, the Youth Court or on committal of an adult for sentence or to be dealt with, if they, or any approved person in the same employment as them, appeared on behalf of the defendant in the Magistrates' Court or Youth Court. Appear before Coroners' Courts in respect of all matters determined by those Courts and to exercise rights of audience similar to those exercised by solicitors and barristers.
Family Litigation Practice Rights	Judges Room (2-day course)	Rights of audience in Judge's room hearings in the Family Court and High Court, except reserved proceedings , in all family proceedings.
	(6-day course)	Rights of audience in Judge's room hearings in the Family Court and High Court , in all family proceedings.

		Appear in the Family Court in all proceedings. Appear before Coroners' Courts in respect of all matters determined by those Courts and to exercise rights of audience similar to those exercised by solicitors and barristers.
Immigration Practice Rights		Authorised to act in Immigration Tribunals But not for Immigration Judicial reviews (CPR 54.7A), which are heard in the Immigration and Asylum Chamber in the Upper Tribunal (UT). Require Civil Litigation practice rights to instruct but can't act. As per the UT procedure Rules paragraph 5A - In [immigration judicial review] proceedings, a party may appoint as a representative only a person authorised under the Legal Services Act 2007(a) to undertake the conduct of litigation in the High Court.