

Board member Appraisal Arrangements

CILEx Regulation Board: APPRAISAL

Appraisal of Board Members:

Appraisals of individual Board members take place annually usually after the end of the calendar year and reflect performance over the previous twelve months.

Appraisals are conducted by the Chair of the Board. The appraisal process for Board members is as follows:

- The Chair will invite the Board member to prepare to discuss their performance in the following areas at an appraisal meeting:
 - time and attendance;
 - specific responsibilities (portfolio and other roles, such as committees) working groups etc;
 - general contribution;
 - relationships (internal and external);
 - areas of focus for the next period.
- The appraisal process also provides an opportunity for any individual training or learning needs to be identified and met.
- Before the appraisal meeting the Chair will seek feedback from other Board members where appropriate and the Executive. The Chair is to determine the process for the collation of feedback.
- An appraisal meeting takes place, where the relevant areas of performance are discussed.
- A summary of the outcomes of the discussion is prepared by the Chair and agreed with the Board member (meeting record form attached). The Board member and Chair sign the form as an accurate record of the discussion. The completed appraisal form is then logged with the Board Secretary.

Appraisal of Chair:

The Chair will be appraised annually by a senior Board member. The appraisal process for the Chair will be as follows:

- The appraising Board member will invite the Chair to prepare to discuss their performance in the following areas at an appraisal meeting:
 - visibility as Chair;
 - management style (inclusive /exclusive);
 - ownership of and Identification with CILEx Regulation strategy
 - leadership skills;
 - chairing skills;

- relationship (with Board members, executive and external stakeholders).
- The appraising Board member will seek feedback from other Board members, the executive and external stakeholders as appropriate. The appraising Board member will determine the process for collection of feedback.
- An appraisal meeting takes place, where the relevant areas of performance are discussed.
- A summary of the outcomes of the discussion is prepared by the appraising Board member and agreed with the Board Chair (meeting record form attached). The appraising Board member and Chair will sign the form as an accurate record of the discussion. The completed appraisal form is then logged with the Board Secretary.

Education and training

Arrangements to support individual learning/training needs identified during the appraisal process will be supported by the Board Secretary. In addition, arrangements are made for Board members to receive briefing and training that may be required to assist them in undertaking their role, as required.
